FRANKPORT. Ky., April 14. The Southen Pacific Company to-day gained a reat victory before the State Board of sessments and Valuation through an opinion of Attorney-General Breathitt, who advises the board that $5,000,000 would be a proper estimate to fix upon the value of the franchise for assessment. The board has raised the assessment to $10,000.000 and would have listed it higher next year, as the capital stock is $300,-000,000. The profits of the company last year amounted to $21,000,000, yet it will pay a franchise tax on only $5,000,000

Breathitt says there are two ways of arriving at franchise values—to take an average of the common and preferred stock in arriving at the value of the entire capital stock, or to take the interest dividends and profits and capital of the company a the rate of 8 per cen.

Herbert Parsons Hears His Father Attacked as "the Director of the In-famics of the Trust" Resolution Adopted Asking the President Why an inquiry by Congress is inexpedient

WASHINGTON, April 14.—This was sugar trust day in the House. Practically the entire day was devoted to a discussion of the affairs of the sugar trust, especially the crooked trail that it has blazed in the New York custom house. In the course of the debate Represen-

> A dramatic incident occurred in the debate when Representative Herbert Parsons of New York rose to reply to a bitter denunciation of his father. John E. Parsons, whom Mr. Rainey referred to at the "director of the infam es of the sugar trast." Before the detare had been concluded Mr. Parsons had discussed in a frank way reports that have been circulated that the sugar trust had financed the New York Republican county committee during Mr. Parsons's administration. The House was greatly stirred to a question of personal privilege. He said that lest any one should infer from the remarks of Mr. Rainey that he aver used his public or political position to aid the American Sugar Refining Company he wanted to say that neither directly nor indirectly had he ever used either position in aid of that company or any of its directors or in aid of his father or any other member of his family. bitter denunciation of his father. up over the discussion.

The proceedings of the day started off Mr. tamely enough. Representative Olmsted of Pennsylvania, chairman of the Committee on Insular Affairs, reported the resolution introduced by Representative Martin of Colorado calling on the Secretary of War for certain information bearing on the acquisition by the sugar trust of a large tract of Friar lands in the Phisip-Mr. Martin believes that this land was transferred to the sugar trust illegally and in a speech made in the Hiwassee rivers; Arcadia harbor, Michi- House recently he charged that Attorney General Wickersham was responsible for the opinion under which the trust had come into possession of these lands. Martin had also taken pains to point out the relation to the sugar trust of the law firm to which Mr Wickersham had belonged.

On motion of Mr. Olmsted the Martin mittee. resolution was tabled by a yote of 141 to 121, two insurgent Republicans, Mesers Murdock of Kansas and Poindexter of Washington siding with the Democrats.

Then ensued the proceedings that precipitated the bitter debate of the day and ended with the passage of a resolution requesting the President, "if not incompatible with the public interests" to inform the public what facts, if any, now exist which make inexpedient an examination of the operations of the sugar trust by a committee of Congress. Representative Hill of Connecticut chairman of the Committee on Expenditures in the Treasury Department, started a the ball rolling. He reported a resolution from his committee which was submitted as a substitute for a resolution presented some weeks ago by Representative Fitz. gerald of New York. To-day much of the activity will be transferred to the public schools, for these are to be the district headquarters to which the enumerators will bring in their reports. In order to facilitate the census this year a special form of blank was prepared and distributed by the enumerators two weeks in advance of the census man's call to be filled out by families. Consequently when the census enumerators start on their rounds to-day they expect to be able to copy on their own blanks the information from these, which will "I have seen it in print," continued Mr. Parsons, "that the American Sugar Retining Company would probably aid me in my election to Congress. If a family has filled out one of these forms intelligently the census man's call will not last long.

In addition to the question sasked at the last census this time folks will be asked if they own any content of the as may have come from my father."

Mr. Parsons concluded by saying that he would be glad to answer any questions that members might desire to ask him. Mr. Rainey questioned Mr. Parsons at considerable length, all of his questions bearing on relations that Mr. Rainey believed existed between the Republican county committee and the American Sugar Refining Company. The Judgeship vacancy in Montana led to a very sharp contest. Each of the Senators from that State suggested the name of a candidate to the President and when Judge Hunt arrived a few days ago to take his new office he recommended a third man. After trying to agree at a number of conferences the name of Carl Rasch was suggested and met with favor from Judge Hunt.

Rasch was for seven years United States Attorney for the district of Montana and is an authority on land law. It was because of his familiarity with that subject that he was invited to appear in the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation. He was born in Germany and did not come to the United States until he was 18 years of age. He is self-educated and highly commended by Montana people in Washington.

PANAMA CANAL NEARLY DUG. Only About 70,000,000 Cubic Yards Re-

WASHINGTON, April 14. The Panama Canal, as originally planned by the minority of the international board of engineers and adopted by Congress has been dug. This plan contemplated a total dug. This plan contemplated a total excavation of 103,725,000 cubic yards of earth. The grand total of excavation accomplished to the end of March last was 103,205,000 cubic yards, or within 500,004 of the total excavation required for the canal as originally planned.

Changes in the plans made subsequently by order of the War Department, however increased the total amount of excaever, increased the total amount of exca-vation to 174,666,594 cubic yards. Only about 70,000,000 cubic yards therefore remain to be excavated. Active excava-tion work on a large scale did not begin till 1907, and in that year 15,765,290 cubic yards were removed. In 1908 37,116,735 cubic yards were removed and in 1909 Haviland, and it is the expectation that with the checking system devised there will be little if any padding.

All the enumerators who start on their visits to-day are under oath not to divulge any of the information they obtain for political purposes or for purposes of jury or military duty.
